Hello friends,

Last weekend, I announced that Immaculate Conception Parish and our neighbors at Our Lady of Peace Parish are collaborating on a joint middle school and high school youth ministry. The programming will be provided by Damascus Catholic Missionaries. Our Lady of Peace will be hosting the Middle School Youth Group monthly and Immaculate Conception will host the High School Youth Group on a weekly basis.

The goal of Damascus Youth ministry is to “awaken, empower, and equip young people to follow Jesus, form lives of daily relationship with Him, become confident in knowing the truths of the Church, and to go forth to be missionary disciples in the world.”

Some of you might be aware of the Damascus ministry, Catholic Youth Summer Camp, which has grown in our diocese over these past few years. I believe this is an exciting opportunity for the Clintonville neighborhood as we work with Our Lady of Peace and Damascus in youth ministry.

Our initial events for this new ministry will be: A parent meeting this Sunday, a high school kickoff here at IC on Sunday, October 3, and a middle school kickoff at OLP on Sunday, October 10. Watch the bulletin, website, and social media for more details!

Under the protection of Mary, the Immaculate Conception, Fr. Matt

Real Presence Real Future

COME & SEE: HELP SHAPE IC'S FUTURE, SEPTEMBER 28 & 30

*Are you registered for the correct IC Parish Session?

During the first few days that the registration link was active, our Thursday, September 30 date option directed you to IC Kenton's parish meeting. Please make sure you are registered at the right parish on September 30. This glitch was corrected by Wednesday of last week.

Immaculate Conception is encouraging all parishioners to attend the Fall Sessions for the Real Presence, Real Future, where they can get their questions answered about the survey results that were released this past summer. Every parishioner in the Diocese is encouraged to attend.

The Diocese of Columbus will be leading these Fall Sessions for Immaculate Conception. Participants can attend either session in-person or via Zoom video-conferencing. Parishioner participation in these sessions is critical to helping shape the future of the Diocese of Columbus and Immaculate Conception.

Fall Sessions Schedule:

- 6:30-8:30 p.m. | Tuesday, September 28 | Marian Hall
- 6:30-8:30 p.m. | Thursday, September 30 | Marian Hall
- If attending in-person, you are strongly encouraged to bring your laptop or phone, though it is not required.

Registration: Additionally, registration is required for in-person AND Zoom video-conferencing, which can be done via www.realpresencerealfuture.org. Registration opened on August 30. All registrants will receive a link to the recording via email after the session.

The Fall Sessions are a vital part of the planning process that encourages parishioners to offer insights and perspective on the future planning of their parish. The feedback provided during these sessions will be used to draft new models for review by parishioners in early 2022. The consultation process will continue throughout 2022 until final models are approved. No decisions have been made regarding Immaculate Conception, and none will be made until feedback is gathered directly from parishioners through the consultation process.

Contact: For any questions, please contact Mary Ann Rivera via marivera@iccols.org.

25TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, SEPTEMBER 19, 2021

The Greatness of Faithful Detachment

Deacon Tom Berg, St. Andrew Parish

Today we see Jesus' disciples arguing among themselves about who is the greatest of them. Jesus patiently sits them down and teaches, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." The beauty of what Jesus taught reminds us not to be too attached to physical things, ambitions, and worldly desires. One of the hallmarks of the saints is a wonderful detachment from such things, which served them very well as they lived their faith in the Real Presence of the Lord and embraced the Real Future He called them into. Today, let us be inspired to do the same! To read more about how we are growing together in the life of faith and discipleship in the Diocese of Columbus, visit www.RealPresenceRealFuture.org.

How shall I live this Word?

Again, despite Jesus' continuous teachings, the apostles still reveal a way of thinking that is a thousand miles away from that of the Master. Then Jesus sits, in the typical position of those who want to teach, and expresses His Gospel, which is always a bit revolutionary: It is a cold shower and Jesus follows it with a more concrete formulation, the pedagogy of the gesture. He takes a child, places him in the middle, and hugs him. The smallest becomes the icon of the true disciple of Jesus. He who has a pure heart is truly the greatest: he sees God in everyday life.

Teaching Children To Pray

1. When they wake up: Our children are very little. When we walk into their rooms and turn the lights on, we tell them good morning. Then we look at the Crucifix hanging on their wall and say, "Good morning Jesus. Thank you for today. Before each meal: We pray the Bless us O Lord prayer.
2. The Angelus (noon, 6pm): I stay at home with our children and have recently introduced praying the Angelus with them. Sometimes we pray it all together in English, other times I pray it in Latin, and other times we listen to it chanted.
3. Night prayers (once they're in their PJ's, we pray before story time): We try to incorporate the four pillars of prayer in a very simplified way. We started off having them repeat after us: Adoration (I love you Jesus), Thanksgiving (Thank you Jesus), Petition (I am sorry Jesus), Intercession (Help me to....; Please pray for ..). Over time, our children have asked to lead this or they insert more into these pillars based on the day. We often end with a Hail Mary or the Saint Michael prayer.
4. For the trip when we are in the car: We pray an Our Father, Hail Mary, and Glory Be, as well as invoke a few patrons.
5. Each time we hear a siren: We pray a Hail Mary for the first responders and the people they will attend to.

Feast day of Saint Padre Pio of Pietrelcina – September 23

St. Padre Pio, was a humble Capuchin priest who lived the last 50 years of his life in San Giovanni Rotondo, Italy, at Our Lady of Grace Friary. He was blessed by God in many wonderful and mysterious ways; The most dramatic was the stigmata and he bore these wounds of Christ for fifty years.

Among his other gifts were perfume, bilocation, prophecy, conversion, reading of souls, and miraculous cures. People are still being cured through his intercession in ways that cannot be explained by medicine or science.

"Prayer is the best weapon we have; it is the key to God's heart. You must speak to Jesus not only with your lips, but with your heart. In fact on certain occasions you should only speak to Him with your heart."
