MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass Intentions are scheduled by calling the Parish Office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the Parish Office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass Intentions from June through November 2025.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The sanctuary lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of June, the three sanctuary candles were donated by Carol Goodrich. Thank you for your generosity.

LIVESTREAMED MASSES

Immaculate Conception Parish livestreams 8:30 a.m. Sunday Masses and 8:30 a.m. Wednesday and Friday morning Masses for individuals who are unable to come to church. Go to www.iccols.org and scroll down to "Mass Schedule," then "See the Mass." Livestreamed Masses are archived and can be experienced at a later time.

ASSISTED LISTENING DEVICES ARE AVAILABLE

Assisted listening devices are available for use during Mass. If you are interested in using one of these devices, please go to the sacristy before Mass.

THE APPEAL – WE NEED YOUR PARTICIPATION!!

Our Appeal campaign is moving into its fifth week. This year, our Appeal goal is $256,384 and currently we have only 8.6% participation by our parish. The Appeal is the main fundraiser for our Diocese and parishes throughout the Diocese are focused on encouraging participation to fund Catholic Education, Faith Formation, Seminarian Education and Support, and much more. Also, when we go over our Diocesan Appeal goal, we have the benefit of using 100% of those additional donations to:

- repair our church rose window above the choir loft,
- resolve leaks in the Gathering Space, Marian Hall and the church,
- replace capstones over the school office.

We need your help to meet our goal of $256,384, which was increased from last year! If you have not had the opportunity to donate, please use one of the pledge cards in the bulletin holders or go online to columbuscatholicgiving.org to make a secure pledge or gift. Remember, no gift is too small. We need everyone to get involved! Thank you for your generosity.

Gospel

Jesus prayed for the apostles and asked God to help them with their mission. Jesus sent them out to teach the world about Him.

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

June 1, 2025

Jesus said to his disciples: "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And behold I am sending the promise of my Father upon you; but stay in the city until you are clothed with power from on high." Luke 24:46-49

And with that, the earthly mission of Jesus was completed and He ascended into Heaven. Or was it? Was His mission completed? Yes, but only in the sense that our Lord's work of destroying death and offering new life was accomplished by His life, death and resurrection. Human nature was now invited to share in a new life of grace.

Prayerfully imagine standing on the mountain of the Ascension with our Lord. As you gaze upon Him, imagine that you were also present with Him throughout His public ministry. Imagine witnessing His many miracles, the way that He converted the hardest of hearts, the authority with which He spoke, His arrest, torture, death and then His Resurrection. Imagine seeing His hands and feet, once pierced, now radiating glory from those wounds. mycatholiclife.com

As you see our Lord in this way, imagine Him looking at you with love and saying to you that He has chosen to send you forth to the world to be a witness to Him and to all that you have seen and encountered. You are to go forth sharing the Good News of His life, death and resurrection with all whom you come in contact with.

FAITH CHALLENGE: ARE YOU GOING FORTH SHARING THE GOOD NEWS TO THOSE YOU COME IN CONTACT WITH?

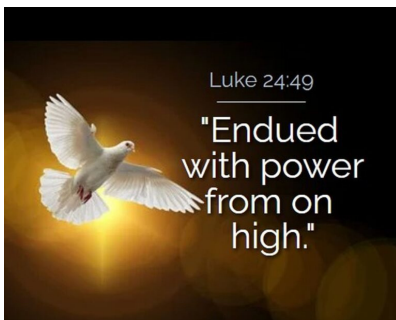

Are we living a Life in the Holy Spirit so as to go forth and be a witness to all?

What do we need to do in order to keep moving away from the death of sin and into the life of God? What do we need to do in order to begin doing the work of the apostles in sharing our faith? AND MORE IMPORTANTLY HOW CAN WE DO IT? "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says the LORD of hosts." Zech 4:6

"So the Holy Spirit does no less than to bring the dead back to life, to make sure we've "got it where it counts".

So, what does it mean to have it where it counts?

It means that however challenging a person's life may be on the outside, God dwells within, and any person in whom God dwells is alive and well in the most important way possible. The Holy Spirit is truly and fully God, so to have the indwelling of the Holy Spirit is to have God within.

St. Paul teaches in Romans 8:11, "If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit that dwells in you."

And we see in the Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles that the Holy Spirit is critical to the new life the apostles lead. Their transformation is nothing short of an experience of spiritual death and resurrection: death, in their infidelity to Our Lord; resurrection, in the new life they so clearly live as evangelists, apostles, and finally martyrs.

Pope Leo: "May every baptized Christian feel called to be a sign of hope in our world."

"How important it is that each and every baptized person feel himself or herself called by God to be a sign of hope in the world today," added the Pope. Faith gives Christians strength, he continued, noting that our faith enables us "to see the light of Jesus Christ in our lives and to understand how important it is to live our faith, not only on Sundays, not only during a pilgrimage, but each and every day".

Pope Leo said faith allows us to be "filled with the hope that only Jesus Christ can give us." vaticannews.va

Religious Workforce Protection Act Your Action Urgently Needed

What is the Religious Workforce Protection Act?

On April 9, several U.S. Representatives introduced the Religious Workforce Protection Act, bipartisan legislation to allow religious workers on temporary status with pending applications to stay in the U.S. while waiting for permanent residency. The bill aims to address delays in processing these applications, which can force religious workers to return to their home countries, disrupting services provided by religious institutions. The Religious Workforce Protection Act would allow religious workers to extend their temporary status, enabling them to continue essential services in American communities. There is an equivalent bill in the U.S. Senate.

In the Diocese of Columbus, there are 21 priests and 13 sisters who would be impacted. Three seminarians are presently on student visas, but upon ordination would need to be transferred to a temporary visa and would also be impacted. The impact on diocesan parishes, schools, and Catholic healthcare ministry would be significant.

Bishop Fernandes has worked hard to help promote this legislation for more than two years, and he encourages parishioners to write to their congressional representatives and senators to support this bill.

"If I could emphasize the urgency of this with any greater force I would. Our brothers help us in providing access to the sacraments across the Diocese of Columbus." - Bishop Fernandes

Please write, call, or email your senator and representative and urge them to support this life-protecting legislation. You can visit ohiocathconf.org/nodeath and click TAKE ACTION to send a pre-written letter to your legislators.
