MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus’ redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass Intentions are scheduled by calling the Parish Office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the Parish Office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass Intentions through July 2026.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The Sanctuary Lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of December, the three Sanctuary Candles were donated by an anonymous donor. Thank you for your generosity.

LIVESTREAMED MASSES

Immaculate Conception Parish live-streams 8:30 a.m. Sunday Masses and 8:30 a.m. Wednesday and Friday morning Masses for individuals who are unable to come to church. Go to www.iccols.org and scroll down to “Mass Schedule,” then “See the Mass.” Livestreamed Masses are archived and can be experienced at a later time.

LOW-GLUTEN HOSTS

Using low-gluten hosts is an available option at Immaculate Conception. If you require low-gluten hosts, please stop off in the Sacristy before Mass and talk to the priest or deacon.

IN OUR PARISH

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

We welcome Roman Anthony Boulton-Nigro, the son of Justin Nigro and Brittany Boulton, who was received into the Church through the Sacrament of Baptism on December 7, 2025.

ADVENT WREATH IN FRONT OF IC PARISH SIGN

Thank you to members of our garden ministry who braved the cold to create an advent wreath in front of the church and decorate our many urns with greenery and Christmas finery. Our wreath will be lit from 5 to 9 p.m. daily.

OVERFLOW SEATING AT THE 4 PM CHRISTMAS EVE MASS

Our Christmas Eve 4 p.m. Mass is our most highly attended Christmas Mass, and we quickly reach the church’s seating capacity. This year, to accommodate everyone safely, the Mass will be live-streamed and we will have overflow seating in Marian Hall. Safety and security of our parishioners is a priority. Ushers will direct all to Marian Hall once capacity is reached. You may want to consider attending one of our other Masses at 7 p.m. and 10 p.m. Christmas Eve, or 10 a.m. Mass on Christmas Day. Your understanding is appreciated.

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

December 14, 2025

In these days of political unrest, scepticism and deep anxiety, it seems naïve to talk about joy. Yet the simple gesture of lighting the third (pink) candle on the Advent Wreath and the cry of “Gaudete” (Rejoice) on the third Sunday, lifts our hearts. The Lord is near! The Advent readings this week, guide us to rejoice, pray and give thanks – pretty good advice and all related. If we recognize all our blessings, we will see that joy is already in our lives and give thanks for it in prayer. However, we can’t set out to find and possess joy which we might equate with happiness. Rather it is the result of something else – an unexpected surprise, a reconciliation, a promise fulfilled – and then joy comes to us.

It is a gift. During Advent, the Liturgy is rich in promise and anticipation, increasing each week as we “wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour”.

This week, we hear three Advent voices – Isaiah, John the Baptist and Our Lady – to encourage us and increase our hope. Isaiah, in beautiful poetry, speaks of the wilderness blossoming and the sick being healed; signs of the joy of hope fulfilled at what the Lord does for us. We struggle and are tempted to give up but despite our inconsistency, God keeps faith forever so, “strengthen your feeble hands and steady your trembling knees and say to the faint-hearted Courage! Do not be afraid”.

We have received the Good News and are constantly called forth, like John the Baptist, from the desert of our desolation and wobbles of faith and even from the prison of despair to rejoice and “bloom where we’re planted”, confident in the Lord’s promise. But it is especially in Mary’s discipleship and trust, when she uttered her “Let it be done” that unleashed the power of the Holy Spirit to a new birth in the coming of the Saviour, that fulfilled hope and brought joy. Lord God, increase my joy by increasing my faith and trust in your unfailing love.

Reflection written by Sr Michael Convent of Mercy, Sunderland

REPENTANCE, PENANCE AND RENEWAL. JOIN US FOR OUR
ADVENT PENANCE SERVICE
THIS WEDNESDAY DECEMBER
17 AT 7 P.M.

Advent is a time of preparation– preparing our hearts, minds, and souls for the Christ-child who will one day offer each of us salvation through His sacrifice upon the cross. It is a time to quiet ourselves and reflect on God’s love and blessings.

Advent is not only a season of preparation; it is also a season of repentance, penance, and renewal. We are called to have a conversion of heart and it is only through complete acknowledgement of our sins, dedication to overcoming the temptations through sincere and fervent penance, as well as with the gift of God’s grace, that we can hope to be renewed once again in Christ.

For Catholics this seems easy enough... we are blessed to have the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This makes it easy on us, right? Simply go into the confessional, confess your sins, and voilà, good as new! Right?

Wrong.

Repentance requires more of us than that. True repentance is taking a long, hard look at ourselves and finding all the places we fail. It is admitting that we have not put God at the center of our lives and that we have disrespected Christ through our thoughts, actions, and/or inactions. It is saying we haven’t loved others the way He calls us to love. This is hard to do. No one likes to look that closely at themselves.

It’s scary and unsettling. How could we have become “that person”?

Does it truly matter if we repent or not? Doesn’t Christ forgive us anyway?

It matters because sin keeps us separated from God. When we separate ourselves from God we are separated from His graces and love. When we fail to be truly contrite, we tell Christ that His sacrifice is not important to us; that we are comfortable with the wall we are building between us and Him; that our wants and desires are more important than a relationship with Him.

We are each called to look deeply at ourselves to see where we may be building walls between us and God, where we may be failing to be Christ’s hands and feet to others, and how we may have turned our back on our Lord. Advent gives us ample opportunity to do just that.

DO YOU VOLUNTEER IN CHILDREN'S MINISTRIES, IC SPORTS, OR ANY PROGRAM INVOLVING CHILDREN? BCI UPDATE DEADLINE – JANUARY 2

Our parish is blessed with many generous volunteers who help make our ministries, programs, and liturgies possible. As we continue our commitment to providing a safe and welcoming environment for all children and vulnerable persons, we are preparing for the Diocese of Columbus' updated Safe Environment requirements.

All volunteers are asked to be fully compliant with Protecting God's Children training and complete the required background checks by January 2, 2026. If you are currently volunteering, your background check must have been completed during the last 5 years. These steps help ensure that our parish remains a place of trust, protection, and faith for every member of our community.

Background Check Requirements

To meet diocesan policy, the following background checks are required for volunteers:

- BCI (Ohio Bureau of Criminal Investigation) background check – required for all volunteers.
- FBI background check – in addition to BCI, FBI is required for volunteers who have lived outside the state of Ohio at any point in the past five years.

If you are currently volunteering, or plan to volunteer in the future, we warmly encourage you to check that your VIRTUS account is active and up to date, and that your background checks have been completed within the required timeframes.

Please contact the Parish Office with any questions or for assistance completing your background check or VIRTUS requirements. Our staff is happy to help guide you through the process. Thank you for your faithful service and continued commitment to protecting God's children.
