MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass Intentions are scheduled by calling the parish office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the parish office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass Intentions through October 2026.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The Sanctuary Lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of April, the three Sanctuary Candles were donated by Connie Nye. Thank you for your generosity.

LIVESTREAMED MASSES

Immaculate Conception Parish livestreams 8:30 a.m. Sunday Masses and 8:30 a.m. Wednesday and Friday morning Masses for individuals who are unable to come to church. Go to www.iccols.org and scroll down to "Mass Schedule," then "See the Mass." Livestreamed Masses are archived and can be experienced at a later time.

2026 ANNUAL APPEAL

As we begin the 2026 Annual Appeal, "Rooted in Christ, Growing in Mission," we thank you for your generosity and faithful support. Because we are firmly rooted in Christ, our parish and Diocese continue to grow in faith and reach outward in mission. Through The Appeal, we support four vital areas of ministry: Social Doctrine, Education and Faith Formation, Evangelization, and Vocations. Together, these ministries strengthen our Church and serve those most in need. Please prayerfully consider a gift according to your ability when The Appeal takes place the weekend of May 2-3, 2026. You may give using an Appeal envelope, the QR code above, or securely online at columbuscatholicgiving.org/appeal. Please indicate your parish of Immaculate Conception. Together, rooted in Christ, we can bear lasting fruit for our Church and our world.

RETIRE WITH PURPOSE:

LET YOUR CATHOLIC FAITH LEAD THE WAY

As you look ahead to retirement, imagine a future built on more than financial security – one where you live your Catholic faith with greater purpose and joy. This new chapter invites you to share the gifts of time, talent, and treasure that God has generously given you. Your Catholic Retirement™ provides a framework for Catholics to plan for this life stage in accordance with Church teachings, while creating opportunities to leave your legacy and support the charities closest to your heart.

One meaningful way to make a lasting impact is by supporting the Immaculate Conception Parish Endowment Fund. Whether through a cash donation, appreciated stocks, a life insurance policy, or a retirement distribution, your contribution will strengthen IC far beyond the weekly offertory. Your generosity will sustain our parish's mission for generations, positively impacting lives and faith journeys for years to come.

It's never too early to start a conversation. Contact Loren Brown, President & CEO of The Catholic Foundation, at (614) 443-8893, ext. 1020, or lbrown@catholic-foundation.org to learn more about the resources available to help you start planning today!

Saint Mark the Evangelist

Saint Mark wrote the Gospel of Mark about Jesus' life.

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

April 26, 2026

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Today the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for vocations to the priesthood and religious life? Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead. Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister. Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

Everyone Has a Divine Vocation

“Jesus has a specific task in life for each and every one of us. Each one of us is hand-picked, called by name by Jesus! There is no one among us who does not have a divine vocation! Some are called audibly by God, but the usual kind of call is internal, through the inner working of the Spirit.”

~Homily by Pope Saint John Paul II vianney vocations.

Each year on May 1, the Church celebrates the Feast of St. Joseph the Worker, a day dedicated to the humble carpenter who raised Jesus Christ and stands as a model of labor, virtue, and silent strength. Instituted by Pope Pius XII in 1955, this feast aligns with International Workers' Day—but with a sacred twist: it invites the faithful to see labor not merely as economic necessity, but as a path to holiness.

Why Joseph?

In a world often obsessed with fame, wealth, and recognition, St. Joseph's quiet obedience and tireless work speak powerfully. Though Scripture records no words from him, his actions echo across centuries. As the protector of the Holy Family and the earthly father of Jesus, Joseph demonstrates that dignity is not found in status but in faithful service.

The Church honors him not just as a spouse and father, but as a worker—someone who supported his family with his hands, who faced uncertainty, exile, and daily toil with unwavering trust in God.

Work as a Sacred Calling

The Feast of St. Joseph the Worker invites us to reflect on work as a sharing in God's creative power. In Genesis, God places Adam in the garden “to till it and keep it” (Genesis 2:15), giving humanity a task rooted in purpose. St. Joseph, a descendant of David, fulfilled this original vocation by crafting, building, and likely teaching Jesus his trade.

In honoring St. Joseph, we affirm the Church's teaching that all honest work has dignity—whether in a field, factory, office, or home.

This day becomes a moment to recognize and bless the hidden labor of parents, tradespeople, migrants, caregivers, and those overlooked by society.

A Model for Today

St. Joseph's witness speaks directly to the modern world:

To those struggling with unemployment, he offers hope.

To those working long hours for their families, he gives solidarity.

To those overlooked or undervalued, he reminds them that God sees what the world may not.
