MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass Intentions are scheduled by calling the parish office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the parish office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass Intentions through December 2026.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The Sanctuary Lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of June, the three Sanctuary Candles were donated by Roger Hocker. Thank you for your generosity.

IN OUR PARISH

SACRAMENT OF HOLY MATRIMONY:

Congratulations to Trang Do and Travis Von Neumann who were united in marriage on May 22, 2026.

TRANSITIONS

SAVE THE DATE

FAREWELL MASS • JUNE 28 3PM

Please join us for a Mass of Thanksgiving with Fr. Matt as he continues the transition as pastor from IC to St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Pickerington. A reception follows in Marian Hall, and all are invited.

GOODBYE FROM DIEP BUI, DEACON CANDIDATE

Dear Father Hoover, Deacon Campbell, Staff, Employees, and Parishioners of Immaculate Conception,

I would like to share that I have recently received a new assignment from the Diocese and will be moving to the Church of Resurrection, effective July 14, 2026.

As I prepare for this transition, I want to express my deepest gratitude and heartfelt appreciation to Father Hoover, Deacon Campbell, all the staff, employees, and parishioners who warmly welcomed and supported my family and me throughout the past five months of my internship.

From the first day, you made me feel at home and part of your parish family. Your kindness, generosity, encouragement, friendship, and prayers have been a tremendous blessing to me. Through your support, I have learned so much about ministry, service, and the love of Christ in the parish community.

My family would also like to extend their sincere thanks and appreciation to all of you. They have been grateful to know that I was surrounded by such caring and supportive people during my internship. Your kindness toward me has brought them great comfort and joy, and they are deeply thankful for everything you have done.

I am truly grateful for the opportunity to serve and learn among you. The experiences, friendships, and memories I have gained at Immaculate Conception will always hold a special place in my heart. While I am excited to begin this new chapter at the Church of Resurrection, I will always remember and cherish my time with you.

Thank you again for your support, guidance, prayers, and friendship. Please know that you will remain in my prayers, and I will kindly ask you to keep me in yours as I continue my formation and ministry.

May God bless each of you and your families abundantly. With heartfelt gratitude and prayers,

Diep Bui

WELCOME DEACON KENNEDY OFEZU, TRANSITIONAL DEACON

Please welcome Deacon Kennedy Ofezu who will be staying here at Immaculate Conception until he is transferred with Fr. Matt, to his assignment at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton parish. Deacon Kennedy Ofezu was recently ordained as a transitional deacon and, God willing, will be ordained to the priesthood in the next 12 months. Born in a Catholic family of 8 children, he is the 3rd born and his parents and siblings still live in Uganda. He came to the United States in August 2023 and his home parish in Columbus is St. Joseph Cathedral. He has studied at: Sts. Peter and Paul Minor Seminary in Pokea, Ayivu, Uganda, Uganda Martyrs' National Major Seminary in Alokolum, Uganda, and later studied at Sacred Theology at The Catholic University of Eastern Africa in Nairobi, Kenya. He started his Seminary formation in the United States on August 20, 2023, completed it May 9, 2026, and has now finished a Master's in Divinity at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Cincinnati for the Diocese of Columbus.

"I ask you to pray for me and our seminarians of Columbus. We count a lot on your prayers to accomplish our vocation journey. You really need to pray for seminarians, especially for more vocations since the Church is growing and we need more pastors. Please know that I and seminarians pray for you a lot every day as well. I am very happy to be with you this summer, (Immaculate Conception and St. Elizabeth Seton, Pickerington) and I can't wait to come. I look forward to seeing you!" With gratitude,
Deacon Kennedy

We are his people: the sheep of his flock.

A heartfelt "Thank-you" goes out to all who have given to the Appeal which helped us to exceed our diocesan goal! Having achieved our diocesan goal, every additional dollar received will now go toward our parish goal. We are already 3/4 (75%) of the way there with 14% of parishioners participating. They led others to follow Jesus.

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

June 14, 2026

Jesus' compassion is at the center of today's Gospel. Before He calls the disciples, before He sends them out, before He entrusts them with authority, we are told:

"His heart was moved with pity."

Mission begins not with strategy, but with mercy. Jesus looks upon the crowds — weary, wandering, wounded — and His heart aches for them. That ache becomes His invitation to the disciples: Go. Heal. Proclaim. Restore. Love. These instructions can feel overwhelming: "Cure the sick... raise the dead... cleanse lepers... drive out demons." But the power does not come from the disciples themselves. It flows from Christ, who gives freely.

Then comes the key line that shapes the entire mission:

"Without cost you have received; without cost you are to give."

Everything we have — mercy, forgiveness, faith, hope, healing — is gift. Not earned. Not achieved. Pure grace.

And the disciple's task is to share that grace freely.

You may not heal with miracles, but you can heal with compassion. You may not cast out demons, but you can cast out fear, shame, and loneliness through love. You may not restore physical life, but you can restore dignity, peace, and hope with a gentle word or thoughtful act.

You are sent today — not by your own authority, but by the heart of Christ. www.kindredcross.com/

The Ringing of Bells at Mass

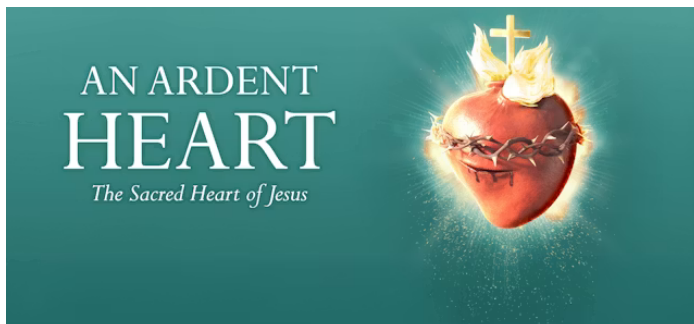

The General Instruction of the Roman Missal (2000, #150) stipulates that a bell may be rung regularly at two places during the Mass: First, "a little before the consecration, the minister may ring a bell as a signal to the people." Here the bell is normally rung at the time of the epiclesis in the Eucharistic Prayer. At this point, the priest joins his hands and places them over the bread and wine to be consecrated. He prays for the Holy Spirit to come down upon the gifts so that they may become the Body and Blood of our Lord. The ringing of the bell alerts the congregation to the calling down of the Holy Spirit and prepares them for the consecration that immediately follows.

Second, "according to local custom, a minister also rings the bell at the showing of both the Eucharistic Bread and the chalice." After the priest says the words of consecration, he elevates the Sacred Host or the chalice of Precious Blood. The ringing of the bell again alerts the faithful that transubstantiation has taken place and that the Body and Blood of our Lord is truly present on the altar. catholicstraightanswers.com

This film tells the dramatic story of Lupe Valdes, a best-selling writer who investigates the apparitions of the Sacred Heart of Jesus in search of inspiration for her next novel. Guided by an expert in sacred mysteries, she discovers the historical evidence of the mystical revelations of the Sacred Heart to St. Margaret Mary, meeting in the process with saints, murderers, exorcists, popes, presidents, conspirators, and encountering both miracles and evil crimes.

During her intense investigation, Lupe discovers the deep secrets of both the Heart of Jesus, and of her own heart that is afflicted by old wounds in need of healing.

This film is being released in conjunction with Church's celebration of the 350th anniversary of the visions of the Sacred Heart of Jesus to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1675.
