MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass Intentions are scheduled by calling the Parish Office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the Parish Office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass Intentions through December 2026.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The sanctuary lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of June, the three sanctuary candles were donated by Roger Hocker. Thank you for your generosity.

IN OUR PARISH

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE:

Please remember in your prayers MaryKay Mathews, who died last week. Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May Your consoling love be with her family and friends.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL NOMINATIONS

Parish Pastoral Council is now accepting nominations for two new members, who will serve one of the three Commissions: Faith Formation & Spiritual Life, Parish & Community Life, and Social Concerns. Saint Juliana Falconieri

Saint Juliana started a group of nuns called the Servite Tertiaries. They worked with people who were sick and did other works of mercy.

When Juliana got older, she was sick and couldn't receive Holy Communion. She asked the priest to place the Host over her heart. Miraculously, the Host disappeared!

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

June 21, 2026

Today is your day, Lord. I want to live it with you and in a way that will please you. Thank you for giving me the gift of faith, the gift of prayer, the gift of your sacred Scriptures. Thank you for not giving up on me. Thank you for always thinking of me and being with me. I offer you this time together as a sign of my love for you and my desire to give you glory through all that I do and say. Open my mind and heart, Lord, to receive the grace you wish to give me today.

Encountering Christ:

Dealing with Fear: Jesus is preparing his twelve Apostles for their mission of building his Church and spreading his Gospel. In today's portion of the Gospel, he is preparing them for the times they will feel inadequate or weak, and the times they will suffer misunderstanding, intimidation, and persecution. We have all experienced fear and uncertainty in situations like that. Jesus knows his twelve Apostles and all of his disciples throughout history will experience that same fear and uncertainty at times. And so he instructs us about how to deal with that. He tells us not to give in to that fear, never to give in to the temptation of discouragement, for one very simple reason: we are cared for and watched over by our heavenly Father. epriest.org

SOLEMNITY OF THE NATIVITY OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST JUNE 24

With the Solemnity of the Nativity of St. John the Baptist, we reflect upon the life and legacy of the man who was “great in the sight of the Lord.” St. John is perhaps best known for his baptism of Jesus in the Jordan, marking the beginning of Jesus’ public career.

John was born to Elizabeth, who had been barren for years and advanced in age when she conceived. When the angel Gabriel appeared to her husband Zechariah to tell him of John’s conception, he declared of the child:

[H]e will be great in the sight of [the] Lord. He will drink neither wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the holy Spirit even from his mother’s womb, and he will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord their God. He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah to turn the hearts of fathers toward children and the disobedient to the understanding of the righteous, to prepare a people fit for the Lord.” (Luke 1:15-17)

Central to John’s message was a theme of repentance – a key aspect of his mission of “preparing the way” for Jesus. He baptized countless individuals in the Jordan which was a reflection of their decisions to repent and start a new life in Christ. Crowds of people flocked to hear John exhort individuals to abandon their selfish ways. In particular, John criticized the ruler of Galilee, Herod Antipas, for his marriage to Herodias, the wife of his half-brother.

This boldness in censuring the king ultimately cost John the Baptist his life. Herod imprisoned John for his polemics, and eventually, at the request of his daughter Salome, ordered John’s execution. However, the living power of Christ’s message and John’s legacy as messenger could not be snuffed out. This Feast Day, let us take a moment to remember the ministry and message of repentance and selflessness from John’s life and reflect it in our own: “He must increase; I must decrease.” (John 3:30)
