MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass intentions are scheduled by calling the Parish Office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the Parish Office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass intentions through February 2027.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The Sanctuary Lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of September, the three Sanctuary Candles were donated by the Pat Kearns-Davis Family. Thank you for your generosity.

IN OUR PARISH

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

We welcome Carmella Frances Billings, the daughter of Trenton and Cecelia who was received into the Church and our parish through the Sacrament of Baptism on September 5, 2026.

We also welcome Luke Joseph Bogner, the son of Brian and Katie Bogner who was received into the Church and our parish on September 6, 2026.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

Please remember in your prayers Todd Farrell, who died recently and Kimberly Higgins, who died last week. Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May your consoling love be with their family and friends.

DEATH & FUNERAL NOTIFICATIONS

Because of the timing of some funerals, parishioners may not find out about the death of a parishioner until after the funeral. Therefore, we have begun to send brief text messages via Flocknote with details about upcoming funerals. If you would like to be added to the list, please call the Parish Office or contact Tom Berryhill at tberryhill@iccols.org.

ADDITIONAL ADORATION HOURS

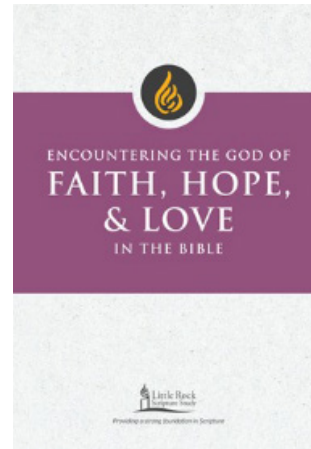

IC Parish has added an additional hour of Adoration every Thursday from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will also be available during this Adoration hour.

We are also beginning a Children's Half-Hour of Adoration on the 2nd Wednesday of the month from 6 to 6:30 p.m.

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

IC Parish has scheduled additional opportunities to receive the Sacrament of Confession.

- Sundays, before 8:30 a.m. Mass, 7:30-8:15 a.m.
- Tuesdays, before 6:15 Mass, 5-6 p.m.
- Thursdays, during evening Adoration, 6:15-7:15 p.m.
- Fridays, after 8:30 a.m. Mass, 9-10 a.m.
- Saturdays, before 4 p.m. Mass, 3-3:45 p.m.

ENCOUNTERING THE GOD OF FAITH, HOPE & LOVE IN THE BIBLE

Tuesdays beginning October 6, 10:00-11:30 a.m. or Wednesdays beginning October 7, 6:30-8 p.m. in Marian Hall.

Contact marivera@iccols.org by September 25 to order your book for $15.

Faith, hope, and love are three vital dimensions of our life with God. Faith is entering into and clinging to a relationship with God. Hope is what we expect from that relationship. And love – the greatest of these – is the very essence of the relationship itself. In Encountering the God of Faith, Hope, and Love in the Bible, award-winning Scripture commentator Fr. George Smiga explores how God is revealed through various stages of salvation history – from the call of Abraham through the Resurrection of Jesus – and how faith, hope, and love have evolved as our understanding of God grows. Commentary, study and reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures are included – 6 lessons.

OLD FAITHFULS MONTHLY MEETING

Do you qualify for AARP? Then you are eligible for the IC Old Faithfuls Senior Ministry group. Please join us on September 17 in Marian Hall for a pizza lunch and fellowship. Contact Molly at mollydodane@yahoo.com.

Sign up → https://bit.ly/Chalice_Cup or call the parish office to sign up

Chalice Cup Ministry

The Chalice Cup Ministry invites the whole community to pray for vocations. Families and individuals are encouraged to sign up to bring the Chalice Cup home with them from a Saturday or Sunday Mass.

BECOMING A MAN AFTER GOD'S OWN HEART

THE VISION OF MAN FULLY ALIVE

Hi, I'm Tom Rogers, a leader for That Man Is You (TMIY) at Immaculate Conception. We invite every man in our parish to join us in Marian Hall for our Fall season which started on September 12.

We are a group of men seeking a deeper Catholic faith, meeting early Saturday mornings before the kids wake up. It's a "No Judgment Zone" where we share breakfast, fellowship, and a search for God's grace.

Breakfast: 6:30 AM

Meeting: 7:00 AM

Done by: 8:00 AM

Come experience a new level of understanding of your Faith. We're fishing for men, and we'd love to hook you. God bless you and your family. For more information go to paradisusdei.org or email me at tom4948@sbcglobal.net.

If you missed the first session, all men of the parish are still welcome to find out more or come to That Man Is You! on Saturday mornings in Marian Hall.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

YWCA FAMILY SHELTER

DINNER – SEPTEMBER 18

Immaculate Conception is providing dinner for the YWCA Family Shelter on Friday, September 18. Food donations of apples, green beans, dinner rolls, cupcakes and/or cookies are needed. Volunteers are also needed to help in the preparation and boxing of meals at the Family Center. For more information, or to sign up for food donations or time, go to iccols.org, Quick Links, YWCA Shelter Dinner Sign-up.

FRIENDS OF THE POOR

WALK THIS SATURDAY

The IC Society of Saint Vincent de Paul invites you to walk with us on Saturday, September 19, 2026, at St. Francis Desales High School. Registration is free! The walk is one mile, symbolizing walking a mile in the shoes of someone in need. The purpose of the walk is to raise funds to support our work, assisting our neighbors in need. We provide help with rent, utilities, food, shelter, car repairs, and more, bringing hope to our neighbors during difficult times.

Location: St. Francis DeSales High School Track – 4212 Karl Road, Columbus, OH 43224;

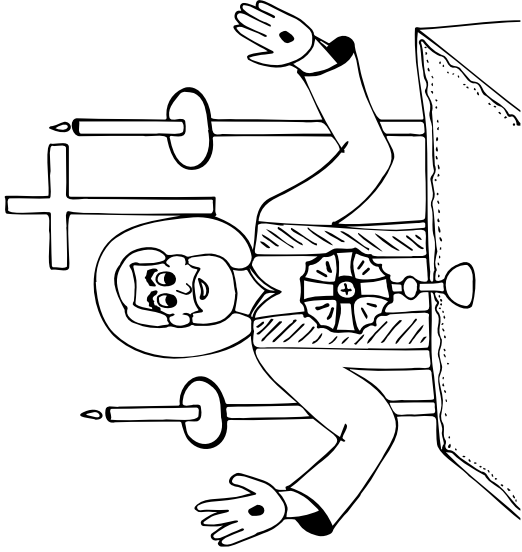

Registration: 9–9:45 a.m. (Registration is free) Donations gratefully accepted. Please designate the IC St. Vincent de Paul as the recipient of your donation. Prayer, announcements, pictures: 9:45–10 a.m.; Walk starts: 10 a.m. Even if you are unable to join us on the day of the walk, please consider supporting us with a donation.

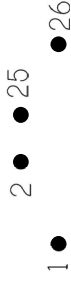

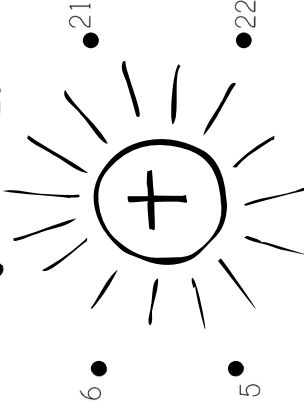

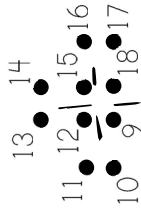

CALLING ALL CHORISTERS!

Our choir season is just beginning and new choir members are invited and welcomed. If you sing, think you can sing, or sound great in the shower, we would love to have you! Any questions, please contact our Director of Sacred Music via email at musicdirector@iccols.org. Let's make a joyful noise!

Jesus tells a parable today. Do you remember what "parable" means? It's a story that Jesus uses to teach a lesson. Today's lesson is about a man who was dishonest with money. Jesus reminds us that we should always be honest!

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church

September 13, 2026

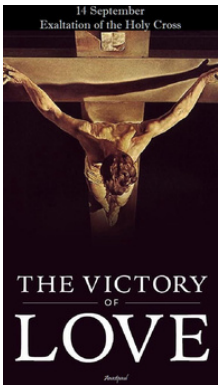

Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, "Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? Up to seven times?" Jesus answered, "I tell you, not seven times, but seventy-seven times."

In Matthew 18:21-35, we find a powerful lesson on forgiveness, a theme that resonates with mental health and emotional well-being. The passage tells the parable of the unforgiving servant who, after being forgiven a massive debt by his master, refuses to show the same mercy to a fellow servant who owes him a much smaller sum. The master, upon learning of this lack of compassion, condemns the unforgiving servant, emphasizing the importance of forgiving others as we have been forgiven. Reflecting on this passage, reminds us of the weight that grudges and unforgiveness can place on our mental health. When we hold onto anger, resentment, or bitterness, it's like carrying a heavy burden that constantly weighs us down. These negative emotions can fester, leading to anxiety, depression, and strained relationships.

Saint John Paul II once said, "To forgive is not to condone, it is to refuse to allow the past to dictate the future." It is not about excusing or forgetting the harm done to us, but rather about liberating ourselves from our own negative emotions. Forgiveness is an act of self-compassion; it allows us to free our minds from the torment of bitterness and to make room for healing and growth. In the context of mental health, forgiving others can be a powerful tool for reducing stress, anxiety, and depression. It does not mean that we ignore or minimize the pain we have experienced; instead, it means choosing to let go of the emotional baggage that comes with holding onto grudges. By doing so, we open ourselves to the possibility of inner peace and emotional well-being.

In this passage, we learn that forgiveness is not just a moral obligation but also a path to emotional healing and mental freedom. By following the example of Christ, we can release the weight of unforgiveness and find solace in Saint John Paul II's wisdom, allowing our past to guide us toward a healthier, more hopeful future. <https://catholic-link.org>

Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross – September 14 – "Let me not boast except in the Cross of our Lord Jesus Christ"

Yes: we are people of the cross.

It may seem strange to some people that we celebrate it, that we "exalt" Christ's cross—an instrument of death. But this is the great mystery of the cross: Christ transformed that instrument of death into a source of life. That is what we celebrate. We are a part of it. And it is a part of us.

We are people of the cross.

It begins at the beginning. Before we can even speak, when we are brought to the church to be baptized as infants, the priest or deacon marks our foreheads with the sign of the cross—signifying that we are claimed for Christ. It is the very start of our lives as Catholic Christians.

As we get older, we grow up and dip our fingers into the font and learn to make the sign of the cross, reliving our baptism with every gesture and every drop of water.

Throughout our lives, we use that sign of the cross to begin every prayer, mark every blessing, punctuate our daily devotions.

And every year on Good Friday—a day when the cross looms the largest and casts the darkest shadow—we come here again to show our special devotion. We stand before a wooden cross and venerate it with a kiss.

And we hear the words echoing: "Behold the wood of the cross, on which hung the salvation of the world."

We are helpless before this profound truth.

We are people of the cross. It is not, to us, a source of death. No. It is a source of strength and a cause for hope.

We are people of the cross. Where would we be without it?

In moments of conflict, uncertainty, anxiety, hopelessness or fear...look to the cross. Look to it, too, in times of thankfulness and joy.

Remember what it gave us.

Remember how, 2,000 years ago, the wood of death became, in fact, a tree of life.

And hear again the words of this gospel—a passage that has been called the most famous in the Bible. It has even been described as "the Gospel in a nutshell," because it summarizes so simply and profoundly the substance of our faith.

"For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life."

It happened because of the cross.

SCHOOL NEWSIMMACULATE CONCEPTION

A beautiful way to begin our school year - Last Wednesday, our school community celebrated the Mass of the Holy Spirit, spent time in Adoration, and welcomed Father Keller into our classrooms to bless our students, staff, and school spaces with holy water. We are so grateful for the opportunity to begin another year centered in prayer and to ask the Holy Spirit to guide us in all that we learn, teach, and do together. Come, Holy Spirit.
