MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass Intentions are scheduled by calling the Parish Office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the Parish Office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass Intentions through February 2027.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The sanctuary lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of September, the three sanctuary candles were donated by the Pat Kearns-Davis Family. Thank you for your generosity.

IN OUR PARISH

NEW PARISHIONERS

We welcome our new parishioners to Immaculate Conception Parish: Jack Billman, Annie Bowen, and Elizabeth Sandhofer. We invite and encourage you to join us as we pray, work, and play together and hope that you find a welcoming and spiritual home here at Immaculate Conception.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

Please remember in your prayers Joan Shanahan who died last week. Eternal rest grant unto her; O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her. May Your consoling love be with her family and friends.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING & REFRESH CLASSES FOR NEW AND CURRENT ALTAR SERVERS

As part of the transition to our new pastor Fr. Keller, we are holding refresher training classes for all current Altar Servers. New servers will also be trained at these classes. Parish children in Grades 5 through 12 are eligible to be altar servers. The class will be offered three times in hopes there is an opportunity for all to attend a session.

IC students will be trained on Tuesday, September 29 or Thursday, October 1 during the school day. We will also have training on Saturday, October 3 from 1-2:30 p.m. This class is geared toward high school students and students not attending IC school. If your child is unable to attend one training session, please reach out to Elizabeth DeLuca at edeluca@iccols.org, or Deacon Campbell or Fr. Keller so we can work out a solution that will fit the needs of your family.

Become an OCIA Sponsor!

Our parish is seeking faith-filled parishioners to accompany adults preparing to enter the Catholic Church through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). Sponsors walk with candidates, pray for them, and offer encouragement throughout their journey of faith.

If you feel called to support someone seeking Christ, please contact marivera@iccols.org or call 614 267-9241 x605 for details.

THE PASTOR'S PERSPECTIVE: THOUGHTS FROM FR. KELLER

Greetings in the Lord!

I hope everyone is enjoying the nice weather we are having. It is very nice now as I write this (September 15th), but it is Ohio so we never quite know about the weather. Summer has been enjoyable overall, but I am definitely looking forward to the fall since I have not gotten to experience an Ohio fall in 3 years. I'm sure it will not disappoint. As I've mentioned before, I'll be starting a mini-catechesis on the parts of the Mass. I hope that this will be an opportunity to understand the Mass a little more deeply and help us to enter into it more fruitfully.

The ceremonies of the Mass are full of significance even before any words are spoken. The place where I want to begin is the entrance procession. The procession symbolizes our journey through this world to our heavenly homeland. St. Paul says in Philippians (3:20): "But our homeland is in heaven, where our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, is; and we are looking forward to his return from there." The Letter to the Hebrews (13:14) says: "For this world is not our home; we are looking forward to our everlasting home in heaven." This symbolism is woven into the church architecture. The part of the church where the congregation gathers is called the nave, which comes from the Latin word for ship. The Catholic Church is like a ship bearing us across the ocean of this world to safe harbor in heaven. The altar rail marks the entrance into the sanctuary (called the apse), the holy place, which represents heaven and eternal life. The altar represents Christ. The tabernacle contains the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Every Mass begins by reminding us that our true home is in heaven so that we can keep our eternal destination ever in mind as we live our day-to-day lives. We are led by the Cross of Christ toward paradise, where we will dwell forever with Christ in glory in the presence of the Father and in the love of the Holy Spirit.

Blessings upon all of you and your families!

In Our Lord and Lady,

Fr. Keller

DEATH & FUNERAL NOTIFICATIONS

Because of the timing of some funerals, parishioners may not find out about the death of a parishioner until after the funeral. Therefore, we have begun to send brief text messages via Flocknote with details about upcoming funerals. If you would like to be added to the list, please call the Parish Office or contact Tom Berryhill at tberryhill@iccols.org.

ADDITIONAL ADORATION HOURS

IC Parish has added an additional hour of Adoration every Thursday from 6:15 to 7:15 p.m. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will also be available during this Adoration hour.

We are also beginning a Children's Half-Hour of Adoration on the 2nd Wednesday of the month from 6 to 6:30 p.m. The next Children's hour is October 14.

ADDITIONAL OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

IC Parish has many opportunities to receive the Sacrament of Confession.

- Sundays, before 8:30 a.m. Mass, 7:30-8:15 a.m.
- Tuesdays, before 6:15 Mass, 5-6 p.m.
- Thursdays, during evening Adoration, 6:15-7:15 p.m.
- Fridays, after 8:30 a.m. Mass, 9-10 a.m.
- Saturdays, before 4 p.m. Mass, 3-3:45 p.m.

The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

ENCOUNTERING THE GOD OF FAITH, HOPE & LOVE IN THE BIBLE

Tuesdays beginning October 6, 10-11:30 a.m. or Wednesdays beginning October 7, 6:30-8 p.m. in Marian Hall. Contact marivera@iccols.org by September 25 to order your book for $15. Faith, hope, and love are three vital dimensions of our life with God. Faith is entering into and clinging to a relationship with God. Hope is what we expect from that relationship. And love – the greatest of these – is the very essence of the relationship itself. In Encountering the God of Faith, Hope, and Love in the Bible, award-winning Scripture commentator Fr. George Smiga explores how God is revealed through various stages of salvation history – from the call of Abraham through the Resurrection of Jesus – and how faith, hope, and love have evolved as our understanding of God grows. Commentary, study and reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures are included. Six lessons.

ARE YOU MOURNING THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE?

Are you looking for support as you journey through grief? Join us for the Fall session of Seasons of Hope. This five-week session will begin on Sunday, October 11, and will run for a total of five Sundays on the following dates: October 11, 18, 25 and November 1, 8. These sessions will be held from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., at St Michael Catholic Church. Each session is centered on Jesus Christ, and explores mourning through scripture, prayer, faith sharing, and reflection activities. For more information, and to register for the session, please contact Debbie Kennedy at (614) 937-0516, or email Debbie at kennedydeborah@yahoo.com. THE DEADLINE TO REGISTER IS SUNDAY, OCTOBER 4.

SOCIAL CONCERNS

In the Gospel, people are hired to work in a vineyard, a field where they grow grapes.
Draw people picking the grapes.

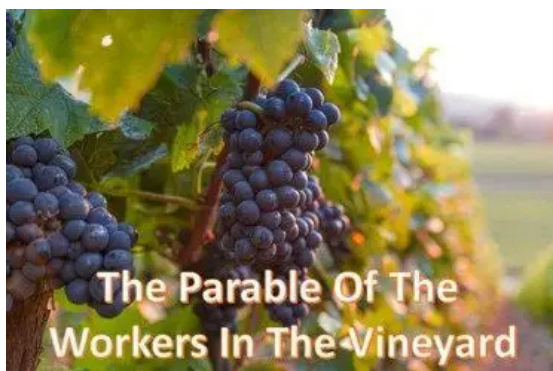

Gospel

In this parable, people are jealous because a landowner is giving everyone the same payment at the end of the day. Jesus reminds us that everyone will go to heaven if they believe in Him. It's never too late to believe in God.

FAITH FORMATION

The parable of the workers in the vineyard is one of the most striking images of the kingdom of heaven and hence of how we should respond to the divine call.

The image of the vineyard is used frequently in the Old Testament to symbolize the chosen people, whom God looks after with great care and who are meant to produce the good wine of salvation
(cf. Is 5:1-7; Ps 80; Ezek 15:1-8).

As in other parables, the story can disconcert us at first and challenge our yardsticks and values. It might seem to us that the laborers hired at the first hour have a just claim when they say they have worked much more than those the householder hired at the last hour of the day.

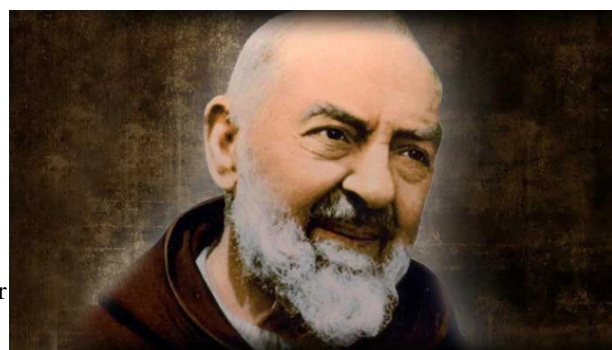

If the master is generous with those who have worked little, why isn't his generosity shown more clearly to those who have worked longer? But as the owner told one of those complaining: "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what belongs to you, and go; I choose to give to this last as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or do you begrudge my generosity?" (vv. 13-15).

The parable teaches us about charity towards God and our neighbor. Since we all receive and benefit from divine mercy in ways we can't even imagine, it makes no sense to demand from God any presumed rights based on justice, or to complain when others benefit from his love. Seeing how generous God is with us requires that we too try to be generous with others.

As Pope Francis said: "With this parable, Jesus wants to open our hearts to the logic of the Father's love which is free and generous. It is about allowing oneself to be astonished and fascinated by the 'thoughts' and the 'ways' of God which, as the Prophet Isaiah recalls, are not our thoughts and not our ways (cf. Is 55:8). He opens for everyone the boundless territory of his love and his grace, which alone can give the human heart the fullness of joy." [1]

Saint Pio of Pietrelcina Feast Day September 23

In one of the largest such ceremonies in history, Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Pio of Pietrelcina on June 16, 2002. It was the 45th canonization ceremony in Pope John Paul's pontificate. More than 300,000 people braved blistering heat as they filled St. Peter's Square and nearby streets. They heard the Holy Father praise the new saint for his prayer and charity. "This is the most concrete synthesis of Padre Pio's teaching," said the pope. He also stressed Padre Pio's witness to the power of suffering. If accepted with love, the Holy Father stressed, such suffering can lead to "a privileged path of sanctity."

Many people have turned to the Italian Capuchin Franciscan to intercede with God on their behalf; among them was the future Pope John Paul II. In 1962, when he was still an archbishop in Poland, he wrote to Padre Pio and asked him to pray for a Polish woman with throat cancer. Within two weeks, she had been cured of her life-threatening disease.

The life and mission of Padre Pio testify that difficulties and sorrows, if accepted with love, transform themselves into a privileged journey of holiness, which opens the person toward a greater good, known only to the Lord."

"My past, O Lord, I entrust to Your mercy; my present, to Your love; my future, to Your providence."

"Walk in the way of the Lord with simplicity and do not torment your spirit."

"You must not be discouraged or let yourself become dejected if your actions have not succeeded as perfectly as you intended."

Prayer is the best weapon we possess, the key that opens the heart of God."

"You must speak to Jesus not only with your lips but with your heart; actually, on certain occasions, you should speak with only your heart."

"The rosary is the weapon for these times."

"Prayer is the oxygen of the soul!"
