MINISTRY SCHEDULES

Ministry schedules are available on the parish website. To see complete schedules, go to iccols.org>Parish Life>Organization Schedules.

SCHEDULING MASS INTENTIONS

One of the greatest acts of charity is to pray for the living and the dead (a spiritual work of mercy). The greatest and most powerful prayer we have is the Mass since the fruits of the Mass are the very fruits of Jesus' redemption. Mass stipends (offerings) are $10.00 each with only one intention per Mass. Mass intentions are scheduled by calling the Parish Office at (614) 267-9241, emailing icoffice@iccols.org, or mailing your request to the Parish Office. We will do our best to honor the dates and times requested, but no day/time can be guaranteed. Currently, we are scheduling Mass intentions through February 2027.

CONTRIBUTORS TO THE SANCTUARY LAMPS

The sanctuary lamps in the church burn constantly to proclaim the real presence of Jesus in the Tabernacle. For the month of September, the three sanctuary candles were donated by the Pat Kearns-Davis Family. Thank you for your generosity.

IN OUR PARISH

NEW PARISHIONERS

We welcome our new parishioners to Immaculate Conception Parish: Shannan, Sydney, and Liam McCreary. We invite and encourage you to join us as we pray, work, and play together and hope that you find a welcoming and spiritual home here at Immaculate Conception.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

We welcome Nell Annalise Adair, the daughter of Scott Adair & Nicole Morocco, who was received into the Church and our parish through the Sacrament of Baptism on September 19, 2026.

SACRAMENT OF HOLY MATRIMONY

Congratulations to Olivia McCann and Cameron McCarthy who were united in marriage on September 18, 2026.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

Please remember in your prayers Roger Hocker who died last week. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May your consoling love be with his family and friends.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING & REFRESH CLASSES FOR NEW AND CURRENT ALTAR SERVERS

As part of the transition to our new pastor Fr. Keller, we are holding refresher training classes for all current Altar Servers. New servers will also be trained at these classes. Parish children in grades 5 through 12 are eligible to be altar servers. The class will be offered three times in hopes there is an opportunity for all to attend one session.

IC students will be trained on Tuesday, September 29 or Thursday, October 1 during the school day. We will also have a training on Saturday, October 3 from 1-2:30 p.m. This class is geared toward high school students and students not attending IC school.

If your child is unable to attend one training session, please reach out to Elizabeth DeLuca at edeluca@iccols.org, or Deacon Campbell or Fr. Keller so we can work out a solution that will fit the needs of your family.

ARE YOU MOURNING THE LOSS OF A LOVED ONE?

of Faith, Hope, and Love in the Bible, award-winning Scripture commentator Fr. George Smiga explores how God is revealed through various stages of salvation history – from the call of Abraham through the Resurrection of Jesus – and how faith, hope, and love have evolved as our understanding of God grows. Commentary, study and reflection questions, prayers, and access to online lectures are included. Six lessons.

Gospel

Jesus wants us to serve others, not just say we will. In the Gospel today, the son who served in the vineyard made the better choice.

FAITH FORMATION

Immaculate Conception Church September 27, 2026

This parable must have been difficult for the chief priests and elders to hear, especially since it was clearly directed at them. In fact, after Jesus tells them a second parable, not included in today's Gospel, we read, "although they were attempting to arrest him, they feared the crowds, for they regarded him as a prophet" (Matthew 21:46). It seems they dismissed Jesus' words and His rebuke, but fear of public backlash, rather than fear of God's judgment, kept them silent for a time.

In today's Gospel, the first son represents the tax collectors and prostitutes, those who initially violated God's law but later repented after hearing the preaching of John the Baptist and Jesus. The second son represents the chief priests and elders. After telling the parable, Jesus declares, "Amen, I say to you, tax collectors and prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God before you." Like the second son, the religious and civic leaders paid lip service to God's law, but their actions did not align with its intent. They were hypocrites, blind to their own rejection of God's saving Word, and they misled others by their outward piety and self-righteous attitudes.

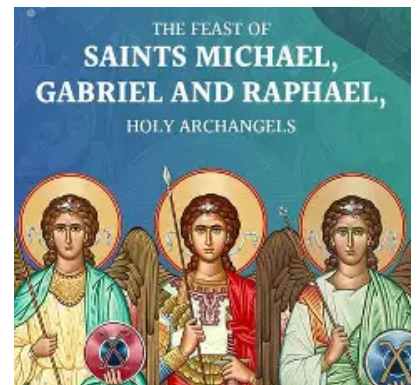

The first son is markedly different. Though he initially responds with defiance—"I will not"—his conscience eventually moves him to do what is right.

The first son becomes our model because each of us, in some way, struggles to enter into perfect obedience to God's will. From childhood, we contend with what the Church calls concupiscence, the disordered tendency that arises from Original Sin. Though we are created good and in the image of God, our nature is wounded and inclined toward what is contrary to His will. The spiritual journey we undertake in this life is one in which grace slowly reorders our fallen inclinations and restores us to the obedience we are called to live.

Reflect today on the first son, and humbly see yourself in him. In what ways do you find it difficult to say "Yes" to God's will right away? It is not a sin to struggle with obedience. This struggle is part of our fallen human nature. Like the first son, we must allow grace to work within us, forming our conscience and compelling us to act in accordance with God's will, especially in the areas where we resist. When we allow grace to move us beyond our initial hesitation, we grow in virtue. mycatholiclife.com

September 29 Feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael

St. Michael, St. Gabriel, and St. Raphael, the Archangels, are mighty messengers of God who each hold a special place in salvation history. St. Michael is known as the protector and leader of the heavenly armies, defending the faithful against the powers of darkness. His name means "Who is like God?" and he is honored as the great defender of the Church. St. Gabriel, whose name means "God is my strength," brought the most important announcements from God to humanity, including the message to Mary at the Annunciation that she would bear the Son of God. St. Raphael, whose name means "God heals," guided Tobias on his journey in the Book of Tobit and brought healing both physically and spiritually. Together, these three Archangels reveal God's power, presence, and care for His people, showing us that Heaven is actively at work in our lives. catholicexchange.org.

The Feast of St. Thérèse of Lisieux

The Church celebrates St. Thérèse's feast day on October 1st, the same day that starts the Month of the Rosary. This timing feels especially fitting, since Thérèse had a deep devotion to Mary and the childlike trust of a daughter turning to her mother.

Her feast day is more than a date on the liturgical calendar—it is a reminder that holiness is accessible to all of us. You don't need to accomplish "great" deeds to be a saint. Instead, you can live a life of sanctity by offering your daily joys, struggles, and sacrifices to God with love.

The Little Way: Doing Small Things with Great Love

St. Thérèse's spirituality is often called "The Little Way." She believed that even the smallest actions—done with love—can lead to holiness. Washing dishes, greeting someone kindly, offering up your frustrations—these are all little sacrifices that, when united with God, become precious.

Her words remind us:

"Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be."
